

Sunday
God Brings Good out of Sadness

One day, I brought home a bright red helium balloon. I was so proud of it! I could hardly wait to get it out of the car and begin playing with it. But no sooner had my feet touched the pavement of our driveway than it slipped out of my hand and went floating away toward the clouds. I was disappointed and angry. It wasn't fair! I had lost my balloon before I even had a chance to play with it.

But my dad had an idea. "I'll get my binoculars," he said. "Let's watch your balloon till it's out of sight." We stood out in the backyard, my dad and I, for a long time that evening. We passed the binoculars back and forth, tracking the red balloon's flight into the sky. What fun we had! That evening that had begun so sadly ended up filled with laughter and joy. It was one of my favorite times spent with my father.

Romans 8:28

CHILDREN MINISTRY
IBC CHURCH OF GOD

KIDS DEVOTIONALS

CD / January 21,2018/XI/03

Friday
God Brings Good out of Sadness
MEMORIES AND PRACTICE IT

I am a doer !!!!

Nahum 1 : 7

Tuesday
God Brings Good out of Sadness

The Lord promises us in His Word that He will comfort us when we are afraid or sad.

Isaiah 41:10 says, "Fear thou not, for I am with thee: be not dismayed for I am thy God."

Whether it is something small, like being sad of loneliness , or something large, the Lord asks us to trust Him to comfort us in the midst of our sadness.

God's Word is able to comfort His children when they are sad.

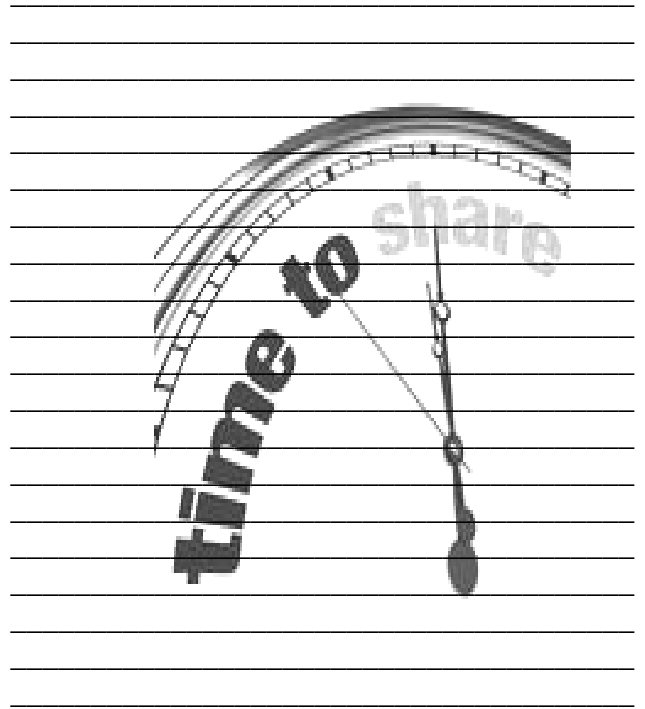

Monday
God Brings Good out of Sadness

One day, I brought home a bright red helium balloon. I was so proud of it! I could hardly wait to get it out of the car and begin playing with it. But no sooner had my feet touched the pavement of our driveway than it slipped out of my hand and went floating away toward the clouds. I was disappointed and angry. It wasn't fair! I had lost my balloon before I even had a chance to play with it.

But my dad had an idea. "I'll get my binoculars," he said. "Let's watch your balloon till it's out of sight." We stood out in the backyard, my dad and I, for a long time that evening. We passed the binoculars back and forth, tracking the red balloon's flight into the sky. What fun we had! That evening that had begun so sadly ended up filled with laughter and joy. It was one of my favorite times spent with my father.

Romans 8:28

Saturday
God Brings Good out of Sadness

Hebrews 12 : 10

Wednesday
God Brings Good out of Sadness

My Response:

Will I trust God to bring good out of the sad time I'm going through?

Hebrews 12 : 11

Thursday
God Brings Good out of Sadness

God, our Father, sometimes allows things to happen in our lives that seem very bad to us. Things might happen that hurt and disappoint us and make us want to scream, "It's not fair!" But God has wonderful plans for those painful times. He may want to teach us something new about Himself. He may want us to come closer to Him. We get to know Him better as we pray and trust Him in times of suffering. He causes all things to work together for good to us if we are His children. Maybe someday you will look back on your saddest time as the best time you ever spent with your Father.

God brings good out of His children's pain and suffering